Visualising the Perfect Shot.

I have had the privilege to mark the final of our senior single final bowls, between Lindsay and Maurice .

This game I would say should have been televised. It had tons of drama.

Maurice was down 10 /2 and settled down, 14/ 15 and they battled on to get to 20 all !! Thomo got there on the last twenty eight end by a measure!

Congratulations to Thomo our singles Champ for 2015!

But don't take it away from Maurice, he made a great comeback. Mens bowl at the top level in our club are certainly alive and thriving.

At this point in time our Division one has its nose in front, Go you Queenstowners !!

Have you checked our web page lately??

John Borrell has taken over the reins from Bruce Longman (who's pioneering skills have been great) John is in the process of making our page -- in my opinion on of the very best in N Z !

All the very best to Bruce and Ruth Longman. Bruce's recovery from his sudden illness is remarkable, he is walking for an hour a day and looking really great, keep in touch both you guys, enjoy a well-earned retirement at Cromwell, with a stop in Alexandra to begin with.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE.....

An old man lay sprawled across three entire seats in the movie theatre. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the old man, "Sorry sir, but you're only allowed one seat."

The old man didn't budge.

The usher became more impatient. "Sir, if you don't get up from here I'm going to have to call the manager."

Once again, the old man just muttered and did nothing. So the usher marched briskly back up the aisle, and in a moment he returned with the manager. Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move the old dishevelled man, but with no success. Finally they summoned the police.

The officer surveyed the situation briefly then asked, "All right buddy what's your name?"

"Fred," the old man moaned.

"Where ya from, Fred?" asked the police officer.

With a terrible grunt in his voice, and without moving, Fred replied..... "The balcony."
