The mornings are drawing are now cooler, and our club is getting towards the business end of the bowling season. We are reminded that with two games to play in the men's Division One, the competition could be anyone's! Let's make it ours! Our selector last week did boost Division One, while perhaps at the same time taking stronger players from Division Two. And rightly so, Division two is languishing, we must put all our resources behind our senior Division One to try and ensure a Division One win for Queenstown.

This week the lady triples team have had a big Centre Win in the Regional playoffs. Congratulations to Margaret O'Connors team, at the moment we have the men's team of Robbie & Eric and the lady's team of Debra & Christine battling away in both the Centre Pairs regional playoffs ,----- good luck to both teams.

GREENS REPORT _ Nothing much to report on greens, the greens have been rolled and each end has had a vibrator pulled over the green from the 2 mtr mark out to the second seam to try and take out some of the little imperfections. The score boards have been shifted so they don't partly get in the way of the rink marker pegs. Thanks to the ones that help at working bees, and to Agnes for providing the scones at these. Happy bowling.

A few snippets from the last meeting:-

A small discussion on Solar panels.

Microwave to be replaced.

Sound system to be looked at

New markers for greens to be looked in to.

Dumping of bowls still causing problems.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE.....

A couple were out doing some Christmas shopping together. The shopping centre was packed, and as the wife emerged from a shoe and handbag shop, she was surprised to find that her husband was nowhere to be seen.

Irritated because they had a lot to do, she called his mobile to ask him where he was.

In a subdued voice he replied, "Do you remember that jewellers' we went into a couple of years ago, where you fell in love with that beautiful diamond necklace that we couldn't afford, and I promised that I would buy it for you one day?"

Barely able to contain her emotions and with tears already forming in her eyes, she said, "Yes, of course I remember that shop."

"Well, I'm in the pub next door."
